COMMUNITY DIALOGUE
11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

PITT LAW PROFESSOR SPEARIT will moderate a forum featuring Professor Aziz which ties the themes from her book to the concerns and experiences of Muslims living in the City of Pittsburgh. A book signing will follow.

Barco Law Building
ALCOA Room, 2nd Floor
and via Zoom
3900 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15260

ACHIEVING EXCELLENCE KEYNOTE LECTURE
12:30-2:00 p.m.

Barco Law Building
Teplitz Memorial Moot Courtroom, Ground Floor
and via Zoom
3900 Forbes Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15260

Copies of The Racial Muslim: When Racism Quashes Religious Freedom are available for purchase through the University of Pittsburgh Bookstore. Click here to secure your copy.

In her groundbreaking book, Professor Aziz explores this paradox: how could a religious minority be so overtly discriminated against in a country that privileges religious freedom legally and normatively? The answers illuminate the racial contours of religious freedom in American law and society.